FROM THE FIRST VICE PRESIDENT...

Fall 2012/Winter 2013

The Page Alumni and Friends Association (PAFA) is very proud of all we have accomplished in our first 6 ½ years (founded in June 2006). Our association was started by a small group compiling mailing addresses from reunion lists, current parents, past parents, and alumni in the area. Our mailing list has grown to over 6,500. However, our annual membership is proportionally much smaller.....only 300+ per year.

In an effort to maximize the generous donations we have received, our executive committee has voted to limit the recipients of our mailings. Future mailings will be received by only (1) those who have joined our Association in previous years AND (2) all who contact the PAFA to let us know they would like to remain on the list. If you wish to continue receiving our biannual newsletter but don't plan to support us through a membership donation, you can contact us at sgtysinger@triad.rr.com, stating your desire to receive and confirming your mailing address. Of course, we would prefer you join our Association by mailing your membership or joining through PayPal, thus guaranteeing you receive all future newsletters.

The newsletter is generally the PAFA's largest single expense in the annual budget. With the increased requests for funding from various groups within Page High School, we want to give as much back as possible. These savings will help buy technology, scholarships, art supplies, communication equipment, drama supplies, campus renovations, tutorial needs.....and the list continues to grow.

Since our inception we have also invested our time and money to other ways of spreading the PAFA news. If you choose to no longer receive the PAFA newsletter to your home you can still follow our progress on our web site: www.pagealumniandfriends.org. Once on our web site, you can also choose to receive our free online "E-news" that we send as an email on average six times a year and sign up to follow the PAFA on Facebook. The sign-up button for the "E-news" is in the center of the page, right under our Facebook sign-up link.

The last thing our Association wants is to lose touch with friends and alumni currently receiving our newsletters. So if you are interested in future news being mailed to your home, please contact the PAFA. We are extremely excited to have thousands of extra dollars to fund the growing number of great ideas that are brought to our association. And we are proud of the positive impact we have had on Page High School!

ALUMNI AND FRIENDS ASSOCIATION MEETINGS

Thursday, March 21, 2013 Regular Meeting
Thursday, May 30, 2013 Annual Meeting

5:30 PM at Sherwood Swim and Racquet Club, across from Page. Snacks and adult beverages are provided.
All are welcome!

FROM THE PRINCIPAL

Greetings!

We have many great endeavors going on at Page, and I would like to highlight just a few for our Page Alumni and Friends.

As principal, my quest is to move Pirate Land from Great to GREATER. One key factor in this journey is listening to those I serve. Therefore, each month I hold focus sessions with the faculty, staff, and students. During these sessions many questions are asked and situations are studied to help move our Pirate ship forward. In addition to those here at Page who are "on the ship," I also value the voices of our parents and other community members.

Each month, in conjunction with our PTSA, I hold a Brown Bag lunch in the media center for parents and community stakeholders. This is a time for parents to come and hear about the daily adventures of Pirate Land, to ask questions, and to make suggestions.

Obviously, the primary goal of any school is to increase student achievement, but we often neglect to seek feedback from those who are directly affected – the students. In order to make sure that our students' voices are heard, I have created a Principal's Advisory Council that I meet with monthly. These students provide me with feedback on new ideas, share student concerns, and make suggestions. Currently, the Council is working on a project to increase technology in the school.

In an effort to increase instructional time, we have implemented No Tardy Parties for the spring. Each grade level administrator has created criteria and goals toward which all students will strive in order to attend this event. More information for these parties can be found on our web page.

In closing, let me take another opportunity to say, thank you for welcoming me to the Pirate family with open arms! Thank you for all you do for our students, parents, and faculty. Please know that the Page Alumni and Friends Association makes a huge difference at Page High School.

When Page Schools Resource Officer AT Griffiths (affectionately called "OG" by all at Page who know him) saw theft at Page this year, he decided it was time to go at it from a different angle. He publicized the Campus Crime Stoppers "test-a-tip" program by airing its logo on the school's closed circuit TV system. Tom Osswald, who teaches multi-media design, saw an opportunity for a great learning experience. His students created fliers and other promotional items to place around the school.

Becky Fallon, GCPD Crime Stoppers Coordinator, spoke with students about the anonymous crime tip program that offers cash rewards for information that leads to an arrest or indictment. Fallon stated, "Students learned that they could 'do the right thing' by providing information on a crime or criminal activity without fear of retribution or being labeled a 'snitch.'" Osswald's students then formed an organization, "Page Campus Watch," to leverage the benefits of the program. Senior John Peele, the lead spokesperson of Page Crime Stoppers/Page Campus Watch Club, stated, "We at Page are simply raising awareness and working to prevent, deter, and resolve crime on campus."

Page Campus Watch is a project that has involved many curricula – multi-media design, math, and marketing – as well as sparking discussions about civic awareness and "doing the right thing."

According to Fallon, it is the only high school program of its kind in the state.

THE PRINCIPAL'S ADVISORY COUNCIL

Along with the arrival of Page's new principal, Mrs. Faison, the beginning of this year brought a wonderful new tradition that presented a great opportunity for students. This tradition, known as the Principal's Advisory Council, is a group of fifteen student leaders, in all grade levels, that meet with Mrs. Faison and the Page Alumni and Friends President, Mrs. Tysinger.

The selection of the students for the Council involved an essay-based application that was designed to demonstrate leadership abilities and problem-solving skills. The council meets once a month before school for breakfast in the Media Center to discuss current issues at Page. Topics have included student turnout at athletic events, rewards for promptness to class, and technology.

Technology has received special attention recently when the Council had the opportunity to meet with some of Lenovo's executives to discuss 21st century technology in schools. The council engaged in a large variety of questions and gained insight on the effectiveness of technology in education. While a solution to the lack of technology may be a bit distant, the council is trying its very best to help Page move closer to the answer. Aside from meeting with Lenovo, council members Brian Roskelly and Alexis Scully created a video that showcases technology challenges at Page, in hopes of accelerating technological advancements sooner than later.

Every member on the council offers his or her talents and expertise, and all have been willing to pitch in on the various projects, which makes the council successful in its endeavors. Overall, this is what the Principal's Advisory Council is all about—looking for unique solutions to difficult problems.

MEDIA CENTER FUNDS DRIVE

It has been many years since Page has had the funding to substantially upgrade materials in the Media Center. But if we are to offer our students the materials they need for research so they can attain the level of education they deserve and Page can provide, the upgrading needs to be done.

According to IMPACT: Guidelines for North Carolina Media and Technology Programs, the ideal average age of books is ten years with 20 books per student. Our present average of books is 21 years with 7.67 books per student. The main focus for adding materials is the weaker areas of science and history/geography, with a hope to also expand in the area of fiction.

With technology advancing as it is, studied choices will be made concerning hard copy and ebook format.

Our Association will match up to $5,000 all funds that come in specifically for supplementing the book collection in the Page Media Center. ALL donations are 100% tax-deductible.

Please consider making a donation – or even another donation if you've already supported us this year – specifically earmarked for Media Materials.

What is our goal? Our goal is $10,000+.....$5,000+ in specific funds raised to be matched with another $5,000 from the PAFA undesignated account funds.

LEGALLY BLONDE: THE MUSICAL IS COMING TO PAGE!

This coming spring, Page Playmakers will perform Legally Blonde: The Musical. Show times are April 24, 25, and 26 at 7 PM, with an added matinee time at 2:00 PM on April 27.

SAVE A TREE! If you are receiving multiple mailings or if you have received this in error or if you wish to be removed from the mailing list, please let us know. sgtysinger@triad.rr.com

The Winning Team

The Seventh Annual Page/Grimsley Rivalry Reunion was held this past September, and once again it proved to be a huge success. Not only was it successful in bringing together a full field of 288 golfers who enjoyed a beautiful Greensboro fall day, but it was also a great financial success for both schools. The event generated enough revenue through Corporate Sponsorships and registration fees to be able to donate $11,000 to each school.

The Greensboro Grasshoppers with President and General Manager Page Pirate Donald Moore ('74) was the title Sponsor. Another major sponsor, Neese's Sausage, provided two $1,000 student-athlete scholarship awards for each school.

Page took home its third victory in seven years, winning three of the last four. It is no coincidence that in the years we have won, Page has had about the same number of golfers as Grimsley. The 2012 tournament was the first time

Four 1987 Alumni who joined PAFA and bought a T-shirt ... Michael Sherrill, Dodson Schenck, David Archibald, and Jim Adams

Each year the Neese's family award both Page and Grimsley two $1,000 scholarships to a senior male and a senior female athlete. This year's winners from Page are Chelsey Coleman and Carter Stanley.

Chelsey Coleman has served as the captain of the Page basketball team her junior and senior year, and was named "Most Improved" her sophomore year. In the words of her coach, Debbie Jones:

Chelsey leads by example on the basketball court. She exhibits great personal engagement and displays a deep commitment to the success of others. Her readiness to contribute to the broader goals of the team never wavers. She loves competitiveness, winning, and overcoming obstacles, but team play is what inspires her the most. Chelsey exhibits all the qualities of an exceptional athlete and young lady.

Carter Stanley plays football, basketball, and baseball. He was named Class Athlete of the Year his freshman, sophomore, and junior years. In the words of his football coach, Kevin Gillespie:

Carter is an all-around student athlete. Nominated by his football coach for being a team leader on the football field, he also excels on the basketball court and baseball field at Page High School. Carter is known as the type of athlete who always exceeds expectations while meeting his own objectives and remaining unselfish. Carter is committed to his academics, involvement in the community, and the Page Pirates!

CLASS REUNIONS

Class of '62

THE PAGE HIGH SCHOOL CLASS OF 1962 held its 50th REUNION October 5-7, 2012, with more than 100 alumni, friends, and guests in attendance

Hospitality and Football.

The weekend opened on Friday, October 5, with classmates greeting each other and socializing in the class hospitality suite at the Greensboro Downtown Marriott Hotel, reunion headquarters. The suite was sponsored through the generosity of classmate Frank Haralson. That evening, alumni and guests attended the Page Homecoming football game at Marion Kirby Stadium and cheered the Pirates to an exciting 35-13 win over Ben L. Smith High School. We filled the bleachers as an assembled class group and were recognized by the announcer at halftime. After the game, the socializing continued in the hospitality suite.

Tour of Page High and Lunch. On Saturday morning, October 6, members of the Class of '62 took a walk down Memory Lane when we took a tour of Page High School, especially arranged for returning members of the class and their guests. We found that things had changed a lot, to say the least! Before the tour ended, we posed for a group photo in the gym. Following the school tour, we lunched on the outdoor terrace at nearby Ham's Lakeside Restaurant. During lunch, we enjoyed seeing a number of classmates who were not able to attend the entire weekend, as well as a few members of other classes who dropped by to say hello to their friends in our class.

Gala Dinner and Celebration. After lunch, members of the class and their guests continued the weekend's social whirl in the hospitality suite or at classmates' homes. Some out-of-town visitors decided to take driving tours of Greensboro to see how much our fair city has changed since our high school years. Saturday evening, attendees gathered at the Marriott for our gala celebration and dinner, and greeted one another during the social hour. We posed for a memorable group photograph on the grand staircase of the Marriott under our traditional Class of '62 Pirate banner. Then, our gala dinner began! Class President Bennett Wood welcomed class members, friends, and guests, and then gave the invocation. Class Vice President Richard Hicks recognized the class, faculty, and guests in attendance, including our special guests, former Page principal, coach and faculty member Bob Newton and his wife Pat. Sandy Russell Cobia recognized the members of the Reunion Committee, and Richard gave a brief description of the mission and important work of the Page Alumni and Friends Association, with mention of plans for the class gift. To the delight of the assembled group, Sandy read a poem that she had written especially for the occasion of the 50th Reunion of the Class of '62. Buck Pearce and Robbin Cobia presided over the drawing of the door prizes, which was followed by more mixing, mingling, reminiscing, and music. As the gala festivities wound down, members of the class and their guests drifted into the hospitality suite for more socializing, with a few night owls going strong later into the night.

The weekend was a wonderful way to celebrate our 50 years since graduating from Page, but more importantly a way for us to become reacquainted with each other and rekindle friendships with our classmates, many of whom we had not seen for many years. Everyone seemed glad to be there, and genuinely glad to see and visit with one another. All of those who attended agreed that the reunion was indeed a success, and no one who was there would have missed it for all the pirates' treasure in the world!

THE CLASS OF 1977 had a blast during our 35th REUNION WEEKEND, September 28 and 29th!

We convened on Friday in the hospitality suite at the downtown Marriott. The suite was decorated with balloons, pirates, pompoms, and signs. There were survey posters with questions about our time at PHS, like "Who was your favorite teacher?" "If you could go back to Page, what would you do differently?" and "What's your best memory about Page?"

The rain didn't keep all of us away from the big game that night! We marched in with balloons and a big '77 sign. Then the sky opened up and we scattered like pirates being forced to walk the plank. We left before we were able to let our red beach balls go into the wet bleachers. But in the end, Page won!

Many of us went back to the suite to eat, drink, and be merry while visiting with old friends we hadn't seen in 35 years. The hotel security was called up to report noise complaints against our fun and harmless group, so we shut down around 1:00 am.

Saturday morning we met at the school for a tour. We reminisced at favorite hangouts like AC Intersection and the cafeteria! Next we were off to meet for lunch across the street at Ham's. Vice Principal Robert Hayes was in the house, too. What a special treat for us!

That night was the big dinner dance. We had t-shirts for sale and door prize entries during the cocktail hour. When we were seated in the ballroom, one of the many reverends of our class said a prayer before we began dinner. Mac Morris was in the house, too!

As dessert was being served, we watched a special DVD about the mighty Class of '77 - beginning with fun memories and ending with those pirates we have lost. After that moving presentation, we recognized a few special classmates who had the youngest child (seven months - shiver me timbers!), newest grandbaby, most recent college graduate, and furthest traveled to attend the reunion. We applauded those and all the veterans who were present.

Finally, after the group picture posing, it was time for dancing and visiting with old and new friends. Several guests tried the Hula-Hoop, the pole, and the balloon boa on the dance floor while wearing glow bracelets. Others stayed in the foyer talking and playing "corn hole." Guests enjoyed treats in the form of Page Red tootsie pops and special Page Pirate M&Ms. Everyone took home bookmarks printed with 1977 trivia and our class email address. Now everyone can "bookmark us" and keep us posted with updates so we can find them again in five years! Although, several folks have asked if we can have a 36th reunion!

Some of us ended the weekend by attending the church service of one of our reverend alumni where she gave a special message entitled "Time will bring about a Change" and cited our high school class several times. A perfect ending to a perfect weekend!

Thanks again to the Page Alumni group for helping us gather information to make ours a successful event!

Lynn Henson

Class of '82

THE PAGE HIGH SCHOOL CLASS OF 1982 held its 30th Reunion September 28-30 without a lot of fuss. There were at least 120 participants throughout the weekend, including spouses, children, and friends from other classes (Class of 1981) who snuck into some of the events. A good time was had by all.

The weekend began on Friday at Sherwood Tennis Club with a Pig Pickin', red and white balloons on the tables, and music from the '80s. Newell Price, Parks Hunter, and a class member from the Class of '72 served "the pig," baked beans, slaw, and hot dogs. My husband, who is from Scotland County in the sticks of eastern North Carolina, even chipped in and helped serve. Players that participated in the Page/Grimsley Golf Tournament that morning joined us and fellowshiped until the start of the rivalry football game at Jamieson Stadium, which, of course, we won! Those that went to the game were treated to a decorated section marked by our class banner, but the rain eventually chased a lot of us away. We ended up at Hams on the Lake and partied with Page Pirates from the Classes of 1981, 1983, and 1984 until midnight. It was also Earl Cooley's birthday!

On Saturday evening folks trickled into the Emerald Events Center – some with spouses and a few with children – for our "Back to the '80s Banquet." Our room was decorated with everything Page – athletic jerseys, helmets, red and white tablecloths, a Pirate ship, and Betty Boop wearing a red boa and cheerleader outfit!

Classmates were given nametags sporting their senior photos and CDs that had a little "Memory Lane" montage that could be shared with their own families. We enjoyed dinner and fellowship with some wild and crazy dancing afterwards. And, yes, we can get down with the best of them – Cupid Shuffle, Wobble, and that other song.

Class president Richard Runde made a few remarks and prizes were given out. Chelsea Tipton from Texas traveled the farthest, and Caroletha Clanton had the most grandchildren (two). It took us forever, but we finally took a class picture with the 95+ members in attendance that night.

On Sunday a memorial service was held for our deceased members. We knew of ten members who had passed since 1982. We had the service in the lovely new memorial gardens on Page grounds. Our memory from that area was that it used to be the area where everyone went to smoke between classes! Natasha Gerald led us in a moving tribute and classmates shared their memories of our classmates who were no longer with us. They went back as far as Mendenhall and Aycok days for the memories. After this celebration, we ended up at Kickback Jack's because we just weren't ready to leave each other yet.

After all was said and done, we were able to provide $450 as our Class gift to the Page Cares program to help Seniors who are graduating and cannot afford the regalia to be able to participate in graduation.

On behalf of the committee – Tammy Brown, Earl Cooley, Natasha Gerald, Jay Harris, Parks Hunter, Beth LaLonde, Kathy Hall Mabe, Sonji Rouson McKoy, Newell Price, Scott Skidmore and Twyla LaSone Bass Stroder – we want to thank all for participating and assisting wherever they could. There are plans to have a 35th reunion in 2017. We didn't want to wait another ten years to have another reunion. Time is too precious and we are all about to retire soon! So everyone in the Class of 1982, save your duckies and we hope to see you in 2017!

Sandy Douglas Hines

Class of '87

THE CLASS OF 1987 held a 25TH REUNION the weekend of October 5 & 6, 2012 - our third reunion since graduating from good old Page High School. It flew by too quickly, but good times seemed to be had by all that attended any of the events.

At the Friday night homecoming football game, our classmates cheered on the Pirates to a 35-13 victory over Smith, while we sat together on the same old concrete steps/seats in which we sat 1984-87. We didn't mind being welcomed back to Page by the game announcer over the loud speaker either! Afterwards, we caught up and had some laughs looking through yearbooks at Hamburger Joe's.

Saturday we enjoyed a beautiful Greensboro day at Country Park with a family picnic lunch, where C.C.'s new baby girl got plenty of TLC from all the ladies. Then it was on to Café Pasta to enjoy dinner and a DJ. We had a good turnout with about 70 alumni and 20+ guests. A few of the many superlative award winners were Carson Anderson ("Least Changed"), Jim Bassett ("Most Changed" due to his long curly locks), Rochelle McCoy Harper ("Best Dressed"), Kristen Moore ("Traveled Farthest" from Iowa), and James White ("Most Likely to Be a Reality Star"). Café Pasta was a great spot, and the fun-loving owner Ray Essa makes the event planning very simple.

Those who came all seemed to share feelings of gratitude for the special memories and friendships we took with us when we left Page. Any classmates who missed the fun can view photos and more details at our class web site www.PageHighSchool1987.com. While there, please provide your contact info or e-mail it to k_sphillips@bellsouth.net so you can be reached for our 30th Reunion!

Suzanne Reid Phillips

THE PAGE CLASS OF 1992 celebrated its 20th Reunion the weekend of the Page/Grimsley game this past fall. Friday night, a good number of classmates braved the rain during the first half of the football game to enjoy beautiful second half weather ... and a Page victory! After the game, we headed to Kickback Jack's to meet up with those who were frightened away from the game by the weather. Around 50 classmates who were able to make it to Greensboro before our Saturday night party enjoyed catching up late into the night.

Saturday night proved to be even more fun as additional classmates and their significant others made it to town for a party at Sherwood. The efforts made by those who attended were remarkable. Close to 100 class members attended, including some traveling from Los Angeles, Detroit, Atlanta, Washington DC, and Houston. It was fun to see friendships pick up where they left off 20 years ago as if no time had passed. There was simply not enough time to catch up with everybody and we are all looking forward to an even larger event for our 25th!

Class of 2002

THE CLASS OF 2002's 10TH REUNION was a huge success! The weekend began with some fun at the Page-Grimsley game where the Pirates beat those Whirlies yet again! The rain did not stop many of us from venturing out under umbrellas to enjoy the game! Many gathered at Speakeasy Tavern afterwards to hang out and kick off the reunion weekend. Saturday we enjoyed a picnic in the cafeteria and a wonderful tour of the school which was a fun walk down memory lane for us all.

The media center has grown; new wings have been added; there are new stadium buildings; there are updates to the gyms; and much more has changed since we all graduated back in 2002. But some things still remained the same - like the look of the girls' bathroom by the auditorium in G-wing and the familiar smell of the hallways we all so fondly remembered!

It was a fun time to be back at Page for a few hours, in a place that shaped us over four years of our high school experience. Saturday night was the main event where about 100 of us gathered at Churchills on Elm for a fun night of appetizers, desserts, a playlist of music from our high school days, a photo booth with Pirate outfits, and much catching up on old times! It was wonderful to see everyone and we look forward to another reunion at year 20!

Are you looking to replace a lost yearbook?

There are some extras from various years. Call Page at 336-370-8200, ask for the yearbook room, and leave a message. PAGE/CONE CONNECTION TUTORING PROGRAM

Cone Elementary to participate in the Page/Cone Connection tutoring program. Page students are in the classrooms of teachers who need extra help with student reading and vocabulary activities. "It puts joy in my heart to know that I help these children," commented senior Charmaine Taliaferro about the tutoring program.

Page/Cone Connection is a growing program with all types of students participating. Senior Ke'Vonn Jordan put it best when she said, "Those who know, do. Those that understand, teach." Because of the new late start Wednesday schedule and the desire to help others, students and teachers are able to make a difference at Page and in the community.

Leigh Anne Lindsay, English/Yearbook Advisor

Wednesday mornings are very busy at Page High School. With the new late-start Wednesdays, teachers are able to have PLC (Professional Learning Community) meetings where they can collaborate and review student data while planning engaging activities for students.

During this time, students are involved in a variety of activities. Some students stay at Page and help with a peer-tutoring program that started in September 2012. This program—created by the National Honor Society, the Mu Alpha Theta Math Club, and the IB students—allows teachers to recommend students who need extra help in a class. That student is paired with a peer tutor who is an expert in that particular subject matter. Students are also allowed to recommend themselves for the program. Not only do students receive tutoring but they also receive a light breakfast and have the opportunity to be entered into a drawing for gift cards, thanks to the PTA and PAFA.

While there are many Page students who stay at the school, there are also several students that venture next door to

Page Swim Coach Nicole Kraswoski was looking for a community service project for her swim team. In a conversation with Smith High School's swim coach, Coach Nicole discovered that almost half of Smith's swimmers were beginners and could use some help. She had found a meaningful and relevant service project for her Page swim team!

Once a week some of our swimmers drove over to Smith in order to work with their swimmers, one-on-one. A Page swimmer was matched with a Smith swimmer to work on strokes, breathing, technique, flip turns – whatever each swimmer needed. The Smith swimmers were so receptive and open to any suggestions we had, and it was great watching their skills improve. It was amazing to be able to teach someone how to do a flip turn, and it was so rewarding to cheer for our new friends at swim meets, watching their times go down.

Every Page swimmer that took part in this now has a bond with someone outside of his or her usual circle of friends. Our mentoring also gave our own team motivation by seeing these students' dedication to improving. By teaching proper technique to others, we became more aware of our own correct form. Our thanks go to Coach Nicole, Coach Shannon, and Coach David for making this mentoring program possible. We came to understand why our coaches love what they do, and we also learned that there is more to the sport than competing.
